

Aug 1948

Off To Marion Island

THE South African minesweeper Bloemfontein is to take supplies and a relief party down to Marion Island, the South African possession in the southern Indian Ocean, where a meteorological station was established early this year. Stores, including petrol and oil, on the quayside, awaiting loading into the Bloemfontein, can be seen in the background.